

WHEELER INDICTED FOR CONSPIRACY

United States Senator From Montana Accused With Two Others of Effort to Obtain Public Land

OFFERED BRIBE, CHARGE

Twenty Separate Counts Returned Against Each of Three Defendants in Washington, D. C.

(By United Press)

Washington, March 27—A true bill indicting Senator Burton K. Wheeler, Montana democrat on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with Montana oil deal, was returned by the District of Columbia grand jury today.

Edwin Booth and Gordon Campbell of Montana were indicted with Wheeler on the same charges.

The indictment charges Wheeler and the two other men with "conspiracy to obtain illegally the use of land in Montana, which was part of the public domain of the United States."

James McGowan, who was also named in the government's case, was not indicted. He appeared before the grand jury and testified recently.

Wheeler, Campbell and Booth are also charged jointly with offering a bribe to Francis Goodwin, while Goodwin was assistant secretary of the Interior, to facilitate issuance of prospecting permits.

Twenty separate counts are charged against each of the three defendants.

Booth also was charged with having used his influence to obtain permits while he was solicitor of the Interior department and later while he was acting as special assistant to the United States attorney general.

This is the second indictment of Wheeler in connection with his alleged activity as a lawyer before the interior department, for Campbell his client, for whom it was charged he was using his influence.

Senator Wheeler was playing golf today when the indictment was announced.

The indictment charged that Wheeler tried to obtain control of 20,000 acres of land in Toole county Montana which were legally submitted to permits for prospecting for oil and gas.

It was charged that he and Campbell conspired to do this in the following manner.

Campbell obtained for prospectors legal permits to prospect, but with the understanding the oil and gas from the land would be used for the benefit of Campbell.

FIRST ARREST MADE UNDER NEW MOTOR LAW

Lee Becraft Charged With Intoxication and Driving Car While Under Liquor's Influence

LICENSE MAY BE REVOKED

The first arrest under the new motor law was made Thursday evening by Patrolman Havens, when he ordered the arrest of Lee Becraft, following an automobile accident on Benna Vista Avenue, Becraft being charged with intoxication, and driving a machine while under the influence of liquor.

Becraft is charged with losing control of his machine and it crashed into a tree, damaging the tree and also breaking his machine. When Patrolman Havens arrived at the scene, Becraft had disappeared, but came later with Patrolman Everman, and as the first officer had made an investigation, he ordered the driver held, and he was placed in jail.

He will be given a hearing tonight at 7:30 o'clock before Mayor Thomas.

The arrest is the first since the new law went into effect, in which penalties upon conviction are stiffer than formerly. If convicted of driving a machine while intoxicated, the person may be fined up to $500, and given a sentence of from ten days to six months, and the license for operating a machine, can be revoked for a period of one year.

SEMBLANCE OF OLD ORDER IS RESTORED

From Ruins of Storm-Wrecked Griffin Walks Ghost of the Town That Was

WRECKAGE CLEARED AWAY

Somewhere Under Debris Rescue Workers Hope to Find Bodies of Four Who Are Missing

(By United Press)

Griffin, Ind., March 27—From the ruins of storm-wrecked Griffin today walked the ghost of the town that was.

Streets were uncovered and debris was cleared from the skeletons of homes, that were laid flat. It was the first day that workers, devoting their efforts to rehabilitation of the little village, had uncovered enough of the town to give the place a semblance of order.

The flood scare was dissipated as waters continued to recede in the Wabash, Bowe and Black rivers and the workmen applied themselves diligently. Many tons of debris which buried the town and claimed the lives of many of its residents, were shovelled and lifted from the hidden wreckage.

Somewhere underneath the mess, Red Cross workers and national guardsmen still in charge of the situation thought they might possibly recover four bodies which were still missing. But they did not expect to.

Henry M. Baker, national director of the Red Cross, was expected to arrive here today for a conference with workers in this territory. Adjutant General William Kershner of the Indiana national guard, was due here also to inspect his troops.

Water Supply Contaminated

Indianapolis, Ind., March 27—Dr. William F. King, secretary of the state board of health, and B. H. Jeup, of the department of water and sewerage, left today for storm-swept Griffin, Ind., to test and purify waters.

Dr. King received a telephone call from the national guard unit at Griffin telling him the water supply was contaminated and unfit for drinking. Dr. King and Jeup took a supply of hypochlorite for purifying the water and also testing apparatus. The water was contaminated by the flood which followed the tornado.

Martial Law Lifted

Princeton, Ind., March 27—Martial law, which has been in effect here since the tornado a week ago, was lifted today by order of Adjutant General William Kershner.

Company I of the 162nd infantry at Terre Haute headquarters company of Evansville left this morning. The remaining company, Battery D, 139th field artillery, of Princeton, will go off duty Saturday morning.

Storm relief fund here totalled $50,000 today.

MISAPPROPRIATION CHARGED

Indianapolis, Ind., March 27—Misappropriation of funds by Miami county and Peru officials is charged in a report on file in the state board of accounts today. The amount involved is $1,500.

THREE BIG WORDS MEAN SALVATION

Grace, Saved and Faith are Essentials Pointed Out by Evangelist Thomas at St. Paul's Church

MEN'S CLASS TO GO IN BODY

Indianapolis Delegation Will be Here For Evangelistic Meetings Saturday Night

The three great words "Grace, Saved and Faith," in that order mean salvation, declared the Rev. Eddie Thomas, evangelist, at the evangelistic meeting at St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church Thursday evening, preaching on a text taken from Ephesians 2-8.

The text, "For by grace are ye saved through faith and not of yourselves, it is the gift of God," was very ably discussed.

The first part means salvation, the speaker pointed out, and the second, that they are the gift of God.

The Men's Bible class of the Sunday school will attend in a body tonight. Sunday morning the evangelist will preach on "The Right Kind of Homes," and at night on "The Golden Text of The Bible." An Indianapolis delegation will be present Saturday night.

"John Wesley and Mr. Moody said they preached for years," said the Rev. Mr. Thomas, "before they fully comprehended 'Salvation by grace.' If such students and devotees to Christianity are liable to such mistakes, it is not surprising that we are unable to comprehend such great, living truths."

"We must first be a willing mind," he continued, "willing to seek Jesus as a saviour by grace. Our experience of being saved by grace is just as wonderful to a moral man as to the basest of sinners. We are not saved through any words, or creeds, but because of His 'gift,' 'His grace,' 'His love.' Grace is of God; it can't be bought. God makes us all one size as far as His gift is concerned, and money, science, philosophy, power, aristocracy, intelligence or society can not purchase grace. It is the gift of God and it is sovereign, and you can take it or leave it alone, since it is a gift. God is not willing that any shall perish, and if His grace saves the murderer, liar, thief and blasphemer, it is because God extends that grace."

"The only demand is faith. Faith and belief are different. There are certain things we believe. The worst man can believe God, the Bible, the

FRONT OF ELKS HOME IS TO BE REMODELED

Trustees Instructed to Build Veranda With Entrance on East and West Ends

TO REDECORATE THE INTERIOR

Work on remodeling the front of the Elks home will be started immediately, it was announced by the trustees today, the lodge having voted in favor of the improvement.

In addition to placing a veranda on the front of the building, the trustees also will decorate the old lodge rooms on the second floor, the ladies parlors and the ladies rest rooms. The extension on the building, which was erected a few years ago, will be used as the permanent lodge room hereafter. In the past it has been used only for dances and other social gatherings.

The veranda will be eleven by thirty feet and will extend back under the second floor for a distance of a few feet. The entrance by way of the veranda to the lodge building will be up steps at the east and west ends. Ornamental brick will be used in the construction.

STEVENS ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY FOR MAYOR

Former Prosecutor Attorney Files Intentions as Candidate for Republican Nomination

ELSBERRY PEA FOR COUNCIL

With the time for candidates filing their intentions of seeking offices in the city primary election, drawing to a close, only one candidate has filed, as Albert C. Stevens this morning declared himself a candidate for the republican nomination for mayor.

The primary election will be held May 4, and all candidates must have their declarations filed 30 days prior, which makes the last day as April 4, a week from Saturday.

Mr. Stevens, the first to file, is an attorney of this city, and was formerly prosecuting attorney of Rush county. Now that he has filed, it is expected that other candidates for offices will begin filing with the city clerk, as both political parties are said to have their candidates in mind for the various offices, and there will no doubt be opposition in many of them.

SANITATION SHOWN FACTOR IN HEALTH

Relation Between Farm Animals and Human Health Stressed on Thursday's Tour of County

SWINE DEMONSTRATION ENDS

Dr. N. G. Wickwire Emphasizes Importance of Direct Rays of Sun in Sanitation Program

The necessity of sanitation with farm animals from the standpoint of safeguarding human health, was stressed by Dr. G. N. Wickwire, United States department of agriculture veterinarian, in the closing day of the three-day series of swine sanitation demonstrations in Rush county, Thursday.

The demonstrations were conducted largely for the benefit of the school boys of the county, and the schedule was arranged by Birney D. Farthing, county superintendent of schools, who obtained the co-operation of the township high school officials. They dismissed their classes at the hours of the demonstrations and the boys attended in a body and heard Dr. Wickwire's lectures and witnessed his post mortem work.

The first demonstration was at Webb school yesterday, and the other school visited were Manilla, Milroy and Moscow. The boys of the Homer schools were taken to Manilla for the demonstration.

The round worm was given the most attention in Dr. Wickwire's lectures on the closing day. He pointed out that this parasite goes through its life cycle in the human body just as it does in animals. Infected pigs running in orchards or lots may infect fruit, he showed, and persons eating the fruit will contract the diseases and develop the same symptoms as animals.

At least two out of three meals a day are dependant on the products or flesh of pork, chickens and cattle, the veterinarian pointed out, and all three types of animals used as food are infected with tuberculosis. Nothing but sanitation can keep animal diseases under control, he declared.

Dr. Wickwire recalled the experiment of the United States department of agriculture to show the value of direct sunlight in killing germs. A tubercular patient, in this experiment, expectorated on two pieces of glass, two pieces of wood and two pieces of woolen cloth, and the specimens were placed in the bedroom used for sleeping quarters.

GRAND JURY STILL IN SESSION

Expected to Recess This Afternoon Until Next Week

The grand jury continued its probe today and was examining many more witnesses called before the body, following a busy first day session Thursday, when much business is said to have come up for consideration.

The list of witnesses today included people from several sections of the county, and also Rushville city. It was expected that the investigations would be completed this afternoon, and the grand jurors were preparing to recess until next week. On account of the illness of Judge Sparks, no report can be made until he is able to assume his position on the bench, and a report will be prepared in the meantime, and the grand jurors will be called next week to take final action on the investigations, and report their findings to the court.

COUNTYS' GIFT NOW AT $1,339.75

This Sum Includes Two Church Contributions Sent Direct to Cyclone Stricken Area

NEW APPEAL TO BE MADE

County Farm Bureau Officers to Meet Tonight to Consider Southern Indiana Farm Relief

Counting $250 which was sent direct to the storm-stricken area of Indiana by the Milroy Methodist Episcopal church, and $37.50, which was sent direct by the Arlington Christian church, Rush county's contribution today to the cyclone sufferers stood at $1,399.75.

In addition to this amount, there has been a number of small contributions made to Indianapolis newspapers by Rush county people before the local fund was started.

The Rush county Red Cross fund will be sent to the Red Cross representatives in Indianapolis in a few days, as it is believed that about all the persons who will give to the fund, have already done so.

None of the gifts reported today amounted to more than $5.

A new appeal for funds will be made in the Christian churches of the county Sunday to restore the Christian churches at Griffin and Owensville, Ind., which were totally destroyed by the wind.

The Rush County Farm Bureau also started a campaign among its own members today for the relief of farmers in the stricken area of southern Indiana.

A county-wide meeting of township farm bureau chairmen, township directors and county directors, will be held at the court house assembly room tonight at 7:30 o'clock to outline plans for responding to the appeal from the Indiana Farm Bureau Federation, which was received Thursday.

The Washington Township Farm Bureau was the first to act on the appeal. At its meeting last night the bureau voted $50 for the assistance of farmers who suffered from the effects of the tornado. The fund being raised by the Indiana federation is exclusively for relief work among farmers.

TO EXHUME BODIES FOR MORE EVIDENCE

Authorities Seek to Determine Whether McClintock's Mother Met Death by Poisoning

TO EXHUME DR. OLSON'S BODY

Death of Family Friend Three Years Ago May Have Been From Unnatural Causes

Chicago, Ill., March 27—The body of Dr. Oscar Olson was exhumed today to determine whether death was caused by poison. Chemists from the office of Coroner Oscar Wolff, started an examination of the body in the cemetery office.

At the same time other officials from Wolff's office started taking up the body of Mrs. Emma McClintock, who died sixteen years ago.

The exhumation was ordered for the purpose of securing other evidence against William D. Shepherd, who was charged with killing his millionaire ward, Billy McClintock.

Chicago, Mar. 27—Seeking new evidence against William D. Shepherd, accused of murdering his millionaire foster son, Billy McClintock, authorities today went to two graves. They will exhumate the bodies of Mrs. Emma Nelson McClintock, Billy's mother, who has been dead for 15 years and Dr. Oscar Olson, a family friend who died three years ago.

Exhumation of these two bodies is in line with the theory advanced by Dr. Olson's brother, Chief Justice Harry Olson of the municipal court and prime instigator of the McClintock probe. Judge Olson believes the coroner's physicians and chemists will find both Mrs. McClintock and Dr. Olson died of unnatural causes.

Mrs. McClintock died soon after Shepherd and his wife came to live with her. Being a widow she left her six year old son in the custody of the Shepherds.

Dr. Olson, who had known Mrs. McClintock since her school days was deeply attached to the young "millionaire orphan," however, and according to Judge Olson's theory, Shepherd resented his interest in Billy's life.

During the coroner's inquest into Billy's death—which was indefinitely postponed when Shepherd was indicted by the grand jury—Judge Olson directly accused Shepherd of murdering Mrs. McClintock, Dr. Olson and Billy in order to make the

FORMER STATE HEALTH BOARD SECRETARY DIES

Dr. J. N. Hurty, Served in That Capacity For 25 Years and Became National Medical Authority

PIONEER IN HEALTH WORK

(By United Press)

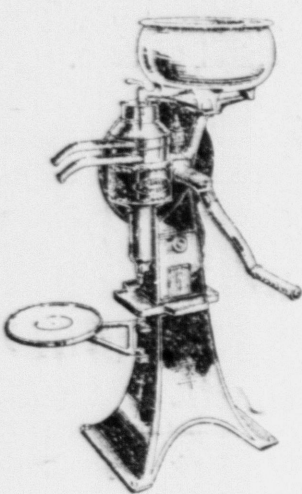

Indianapolis, Ind., March 27—Dr. John N. Hurty, 73, who served as secretary of the Indiana State board of health for 25 years, and became a national medical authority, died at his home here today.

Dr. Hurty was a pioneer in the field of public health, participating in health work throughout the United States. Retiring from active work in this field in September, 1922, when he voluntarily surrendered his post as secretary of the state board of health, he became a representative in the state legislature to further the interests he had so long represented.

Dr. Hurty had been in failing health since shortly before his retirement from the state board. He had an attack of influenza and other lung infection recently, and this caused his death.

In March, 1896, Dr. Hurty, then a pharmacist, was named secretary of the state board. His vigorous drives for health and sanitation in Indiana attracted attention throughout the nation and he became an authority on health, work, writing articles for many magazines and hundreds of newspaper.

Dr. Hurty came to Indianapolis from Lebanon, O., where he was born in 1852.

DUE TO INTENSIVE WORK, GRAVEL AND STONE ROADS ARE GOOD

Indianapolis, Ind., March 27—As a result of intensive maintenance work in the last few days, the greater mileage of gravel and stone roads in the state highway system are in splendid shape.

Roads of central, southern, eastern and western Indiana are now free of frost and only in a few places wet, chiefly because of recent inundations from swollen streams. Northern Indiana roads are rapidly responding to repeated dragging and in most cases are in condition to handle all kinds of traffic, with the possible exception of No. 15 in the vicinity of Burlington during rainy periods.

A survey of the system, according to John D. Williams, highway director, shows that all roads went through the winter and early spring in better shape than ever before. This is due to two outstanding facts. First the continued maintenance and prompt repair of breaks when they occur, and the splendid cooperation of the public in lightening heavy loads during periods of rain and thaw.

The bulletin points out that a run-around bridge on No. 13 just south of Hartford City has been replaced with a permanent structure, and that recent washouts on No. 31 between Rockville and Danville are repaired. The detour eight miles north of Attica on No. 10 also has been removed.

If No. 54 is still soft from recent overflow of Wabash river, traffic will continue to use marked detour on west side of river between Terre Haute and Clinton.

Surface conditions, detours, etc., for the week of March 27-April 3 are set forth in the bulletin as follows:

No. 1—Pavement from Franklin via Indianapolis to Peru. Drive carefully at new bridge fill 7 miles north of Kokomo. At Seymour turn right at corner of Tipton and O'Brien streets following marked detour via Chestnut Ridge to No. 1 at 7 miles north of Crothersville. Parts of detour alternate from soft to rough.

No. 2—Pavement from Lincoln Highway west to 2 miles east of Columbia City; thence over marked detour to Columbia City. There take old location west to Piercetown, thence detour north to new pavement into Warsaw. Soft in thawing weather between Bourbo and No. 27—heavy traffic avoid.

No. 4—One mile of earth surface between Dugger and Linton, detour over county road through Dugger in wet weather. Temporary detour between Dugger and Sullivan account of dredge ditch cut across road. Drive carefully past grading gangs between Haydon and North Vernon and just west of Aurora.

No. 5—Closed from junction of roads 5 and 41, south of Shoals, to junction of roads 5 and 40 near West Baden. Traffic use roads 41 and 22 thru Shoals, Burton, Mitchell and Orleans to Paoli.

No. 6—Pavement from Indianapolis to Shelbyville with 13 mile detour around two bridge projects. Shelbyville-Indianapolis traffic can use route via county road at Shelbyville to Fountaintown thence to Indianapolis on 39. Use pavements from Indianapolis to one mile north of Lebanon, thence use marked detour to west via Thorntown and Colfax returning to pavement opposite Colfax. This detour will be used for possibly two weeks. Lebanon-Lafayette traffic advised to take No. 44 from Lebanon via Frankfort to Rossville, thence on 29 to Lafayette.

No. 7—Heavy traffic prohibited between Wabash and Lagro in extreme wet weather.

No. 10—Traffic detour and use old bridge over Patoka river at Patoka. Closed at 4 miles north of Veederburg account paving; detour to east returning to No. 10 at 7 miles south of Attica. Crawfordsville-Attica traffic use "Adelway" during wet weather.

No. 11—Roadside run-around at bridge out 2 1/2 miles north of State Road 46—bad in wet weather.

No. 12—Drive slow over new fill at Fish Creek, 4 miles south of Freedom. During flood periods portion of road may be closed near Romona and Gosport.

No. 13—Run-arounds just south of Hartford City; just south of Bluffton and at bridge south of Ossian.

No. 14—Earth road from Leopold Junction to St. Croix, impassable at this time.

No. 15—Soft and unsuited for heavy traffic in vicinity of Burlington during rainy periods.

No. 16—Do not use this road from overhead crossing project just west of Lincoln City east through Lincoln City, St. Meinrad and St. Croix to Leavenworth as it is under construction and earth surface most of the way.

No. 17—Two run-arounds between Ligonier and Kendallville, account bridge construction.

No. 19—Small breaks near Alexandria but passable. Soft in wet weather and heavy trucks prohibited.

No. 22—Pavement between Indianapolis and Martinsville with two detours. Between Paoli and English are 17 miles of earth surface impassable to autos at this time. Avoid south of Grantsburg account construction. Drive carefully past grading gangs between Bloomington and Martinsville.

No. 24—New grade completed between Palmyra and Salem but go via Fredericksburg or Martinsburg in wet weather. (New Albany and Louisville (Ky.) traffic go via Peekin and Martinsburg in wet weather coming out on Rd. 5 at Greenville).

No. 25—Pavement from Lagrange to within 1 mile of Goshen-Middlebury road. One-half mile detour marked to south account bridge construction. Detour in poor shape in thawing weather. Heavy traffic should avoid this stretch. Run-arounds at bridge projects 8 and 9 east of Angola. Traffic proceed slowly.

No. 29—Soft places between Russellville and Middleford, and between Rossville and Lafayette.

No. 32—Run-around at bridge construction south of Romney.

No. 33—Side detour at bridge construction 5 miles east of Crawfordsville. Detour 2 miles west of Crawfordsville account bridge washed out.

No. 34—Drive carefully over narrow road caused by bridge construction at 5 1/2 miles south of Connersville.

No. 40—Two mile detour starting at 6 miles east of Scottsburg account of overhead construction at B. & O. railroad, is poor. Drive carefully past grading gangs between Rising Sun and Aurora.

No. 41—Traffic use new grade over Willow Valley Hill except in wet weather, then use old road.

No. 50—Surface breaks near North Judson, Bass Lake, San Pierre and Culver.

No. 54—Closed between Lyford and Clinton account overflow from Wabash river.

Gary—Secretary of Labor Davis will be the principal speaker at the dedication of the new Moose lodge, home here April 18.

Political Announcement

FOR COUNCILMAN

We are authorized to announce the name of Elsbury Pea as a candidate for Councilman in the Second Ward, subject to the Republican Primary,
Tuesday, May 5th, 1925.

What of the Future?

If the objectors and the complainers of the last generation had been in the majority, what would Rushville have been today?Everyone can answer that question in his or her own way.Let us suppose, for example, that those who opposed the erection of the court house had been strong enough to prevent its being built.We are told that there was a persistent movement against a new building. Those against it resorted to every legal recourse in vain. They were content with the old brick building surrounded by a hitch rack.
They were satisfied with letting well enough alone.But the court house was built and no one was ruined financially. It was paid for long ago and for many years has been a thing in which every person in Rush county could take honest pride.But the court house was the last public building erected in Rushville,
with the exception of school houses.
Thirty years without a public building being constructed.Will it be thirty years more before another one is built? That all depends whether forward looking people or backward looking people are the dominant influence in Rush county.Just now there is a movement under way to construct a community building that will be of great service to the residents of Rush county.
The board of commissioners has shown a favorable attitude, by instructing the county attorney to proceed with plans. A community building, with ample space for a library, a large auditorium and rooms for other public activities, would be a great step forward for Rush county.Rushville, too, has under consideration the construction of a gymnasium to take care of the needs of high school athletics. Its need is not denied and it can be built; therefore, let's build it.The successful culmination of these two plans would mark Rushville and Rush county as a progressive community anxious to go ahead and develop into the kind of a community it deserves to be, with the natural advantages it possesses.

Laws Not Cures

President Coolidge and Secretary of Agriculture Jardine are determined that sensible recommendations for legislation to aid the farmer
shall be presented to the next congress. Neither the president nor the secretary of agriculture have, for an instant, any notion that the mere enactment of a certain law will cure
any legislative ill that may confront
the agricultural industry of the nation. Both the president and the secretary desire that form of legislation that will permit the farmer to get reasonable credit on sound security when it is necessary. They desire to aid in the working out of a plan that will permit him to place his products on the market in such a manner as to put him on a par with other business men.In the opinion of the secretary of agriculture the farmers' is a vastly complex business, and one that needs improved marketing methods. As Secretary Jardine says in an article in
"The Nation's Business," "What
we all need to do is to talk less tom-day-rot and throw fewer monkey wrenches into other people's machinery." As Jardine puts it,
"Quantity and quality are the two things that count in the farm business, as in any other, and profitable production doesn't lie in producing at the lowest possible cost per acre" but in producing in such a way as to give the biggest margin between the production cost per acre and the selling price per acre. The problem is just a business matter, and the farmer is working it out on his own farm."The Hodge-Podge

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service WriterWASHINGTON—The "biggest man in the president's cabinet" is its newest member.
John Garibaldi Sargent, the new attorney general, whom President Coolidge called to office after the Senate had turned down Charles B. Warren, towers a good three inches above Secretary Wilbur, heretofore the lengthiest cabinet member, and tips the scales at 25
pounds or so more than Secretary Weeks, the heaviest of the old cabinet.Sargent just scales in under 6 feet 5 inches in his socks, in height. His weight is roughly 18-stone, or some 250 pounds avoirdupois.Sargent typifies the "rugged Vermont strength" which the poets write about.Although his 64 years have brought a certain flaccid looseness
to the skin of his neck and jaw,
the lines of his jaw are still firm
and strong.The very bigness of his body, ponderous but powerful, suggests a mind that, likewise, while perhaps not of panther-like quickness, plows straight ahead through all obstacles to definite and substantial conclusions.SARGENT ought to help Coolidge feel more at home in his job. With Sargent in town, the president may feel, in some degree, the same kindly interest and protection that he felt when, under Sargent's wing, he was saved a hazing on his entrance to Black River Academy, at Ludlow,
Vt. nearly 40 years ago.The Sargents lived at Ludlow, and young Coolidge went to their house to board.

As a timid, bashful boy from the village of Plymouth, called Cal was scheduled for a "course of sprouts" by the more sophisticated academicians.Then John Sargent passed out word that the newcomer was sort of under his protection and that he'd tend to anybody who tried to tend to Cal. Sargent's fist was as big then as it is today—and his biceps more supple. The hint was sufficient.SARGENT comes to Washington with the reputation of being

"a big man from a small town."Ludlow, 12 miles from Coolidge's home town of Plymouth, is a burg of only 1700 inhabitants. Life there is calm, simple, natural.It is from such surroundings, Coolidge believes, that a true perspective of law as well as life can best be gained. There, fundamentals alone stand out.The superficialities, the abnormalities, that so often warp the viewpoint of city dwellers are missing. The technicalities, the evasions, so much practiced by big city lawyers, find no place.AS an aid to legal and philosophical researches, Sargent relies no little on pipe and plug.During long winter days, when Ludlow lies snowbound, Sargent spends days on end in his library smoking and consuming both chewing tobacco and legal lore in prodigious quantities.Following the spring thaw, he gets a severe attack of fishing fever. And a little later he is apt to be seized by a mania for gardening.His rod and hoe have supplied the Sargent table with its fresh fish and vegetables throughout his life.FIFTEEN YEARS

Smaller Cities Goats
(Newcastle Courier)The Indianapolis Star is publishing a series of insidious advertisements boosting its own game and making the smaller cities of the central part of the state the goats. It is reasonable to expect Newcastle will be included in the series. These advertisements, usually a half page, carry a picture of a fine residential section of the city selected—which so far have included Bloomington, Shelby-ville, Lebanon and others—giving figures intimating that all of the homes
so pictured are readers of The Star and that they have charge accounts in Indianapolis retail stores.Of course The Star sends out a solicitor, who visits the homes, and it is certain he places the words he wants in the mouths of the housewives. With this "information" The Star then proceeds to tell the Indianapolis retail merchants they get their trade from Newcastle, or what ever town is selected because the people read The Star.If the Indianapolis newspaper persists in its campaign, two things will happen in every city giving this publicity. The first will be increased loyalty to the home town, especially by the merchants themselves, who would hate to have it be known that they have charge accounts in Indianapolis retail stores while advocating a trade at home policy. The second will be a decrease in wholesale trade with Indianapolis wholesalers. Of course all of the facts given in the advertisements are not true, but if they are Newcastle merchants having charge accounts, they had better cancel them before The Star man gets to Newcastle and then have their wives inform the solicitor who calls that it is none of his business.The wholesale division of the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce has long been conducting so-called courtesy trips to cities in the Indianapolis trade radius. These wholesalers call on merchants and profess to be interested in them. Now this series of advertisements give the impression that smaller towns do all their retail buying in Indianapolis.
If this is true then The Star's advertising is going to hurt the wholesaler, for what merchant in Newcastle wants to compete with the Indianapolis retailer when they both buy from the same wholesaler? Newcastle merchants can buy just as cheaply in Cincinnati and Chicago as in Indianapolis and this is what will happen if The Star keeps on.
If the Indianapolis merchants are swallowing The Star's bunk it is all the more reason for home town loyalty for it certainly shows that it is Indianapolis against the rest of the state.

ECZEMA

You will be compelled to admit that the results of S.S.S. are really amazing!MANY people imagine that eczema or better needs only some external application on the skin in order to get relief. This is because the attention of the sufferer is so violently directed to the intense burning and itching which accompany this disease. Try as they may—permanent relief will never be theirs until the disease laden blood is thoroughly cleansed.We know there is one thing that stops eczema and that is more red-blood-cells! S.S.S. builds them by the million! You can increase your red-blood-cells to the point where it is practically impossible for eczema to exist. We know that as blood-cells increase in number, blood impurities vanish! We also know that night follows day. Both are facts! But have you, eczema sufferers, ever actually taken advantage of this wonderful fact? Thousands just like you have never thought about it. Skin eruptions, eczema, with all its fiery, skin digging torture, and its soul-
tearing, unreachable itching, pimples, blackheads and boils, they all pack up and go, when the tide of blood-cells begins to roll in! Blood-cells are the fighting giants of Nature! S.S.S. builds them by the million! It has been doing it since 1826.S.S.S. is one of the greatest blood-cell builders, blood-cleansers and body strengtheners known to us mortals! When you put these facts together, then to continue to have eczema and skin eruptions looks more like a sin than a disease. S.S.S. contains only vegetable medicinal ingredients. Because S.S.S. does build red-blood-cells, it routs eczema, clears the skin, builds firm flesh, fills out hollow cheeks, and gives you that more up and going appearance.S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

You can't watch your disposition too carefully. A crab and a grouch are rarely successful. If your liver and stomach are in an unhealthy condition you can not have a sunny disposition because they affect the brain as well as the entire system. Mayr's Wonderful Remedy has been usually successful in such cases. Our advice to everyone troubled in this way, especially when accompanied with bloating in the stomach is to try this remedy. It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. They're Teammates Again

Here we have Steve O'Neill, catcher (on the left), and "Sad Sam" Jones, pitcher, back together again with the New York Yankees. Some years ago, O'Neill and Jones were room-mates on the Cleveland club. A trade then took Jones to Boston and thence to the Yankees. Oddly enough, O'Neill later followed a similar route. This season finds them on the same team once more. They're great pals—Steve and Sam.

Football Monument to Camp

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, March 27—Walter Camp was the sixth of nationally known pioneers of American sports who have died recently as all sportsmen want to finish—active to the end.

In a comparatively short space of time, Pop Geers, Percy Haughton, August Belmont, Julius Fleischmann, John M. Ward and Walter Camp reached the end of creditable and useful careers.

It is unusual that within a few months, Walter Camp, the father of football and the guiding genius of Yale's gridiron, and Percy Haughton, the founder of the Harvard football system, have died suddenly. The end of both found them in the harness. Haughton succumbed in the dressing room at Columbia just a few minutes after he had left his team and Camp was found dead in his bed during a meeting of the football rules committee on which he had served for years.

Fate seemed to have spared Walter Camp until it could be said of him that his work had been finished and that his duty had been done faithfully, efficiently and well.

He had spent about 45 years developing the game of football from a brutal game that was threatened with a legislative ban into the ranking college sport of the United States and a sport that is pressing baseball as the national pastime.

It seemed to be a little more than a coincidence that he should be called almost at the moment when the rules committee of the Intercollegiate Football Association was acting upon the opinion that football had finally reached the degree of perfection where no important changes were necessary in the rules. The rules practically were Walter Camp. It was his wise counsel that led the other members of the committee in their deliberations. It was Walter Camp who saw what was wrong with football during the years when the game was not flourishing and it was he who knew what should be done to improve the game. He led the fight in support of the forward pass when other authorities were insisting that it would ruin the game. He had the foresight to know that the forward pass would make football the game that it is now and he held his ground against all opposition.

SPORT CHATTER

Buffalo, N. Y.—Paavo Nurmi, world's running champion, defeated his rival, Willie Ritola by 120 yards in a 5,000 meter race here last night. Nurmi's time was 14:38 which was 14 4-5 seconds slower than Ritola's record. Ritola was almost forced to quit with a "stitch" but he finished gamely.

Detroit—Cincinnati, defending its title in the first round of the international YMCA basketball tournament defeated Little Rock last night 30 to 21. Saginaw defeated Oak Park 28 to 26. Racine won from Birmingham 22 to 15 and Detroit beat New London, Conn., 33 to 22.

Chicago—Howard Cantonwine, of Iowa has been signed to meet Richard Schikat, Germany in the semi-windup of the wrestling show at the Coliseum here Tuesday night. Wayne Munn meets "Tot's" Mondt in the main event.

FRIDDLE HIRED AS COACH

Franklin, Ind., March 27—Burl Friddle, Franklin basketball star, has accepted an offer to become athletic director of Washington high school, it was announced here today.

WILL NOT DEFEND THE TITLE

Moscow Independents, Eastern Indiana Champs Can't go to Tourney

The Moscow Independent basketball team will not go to Muncie Saturday of this week to take part in the eastern Indiana tourney, because of the illness of several members of the team.

The Moscow team won the championship of eastern Indiana last year by playing remarkable ball, and defeating all comers, including several fast teams from Muncie, and their second appearance this year was expected to be a good drawing card, but they will be unable to defend the title this year. Between 12 and 16 teams are expected to take part in the tourney.

"The Beloved Brute"

One of the high spots of "The Beloved Brute," which will be shown at the Castle theatre today and Saturday, occurs when "the brute" engages in a wrestling match, catch-as-catch-can, with his younger brother. As Victor M-Lean, the British film star, who plays the title role, stands six feet three and is built in proper athletic proportion, it was necessary for Vitagraph to find someone equally as husky to oppose him. William Russell, star of many photoplays, and in most of which his physical prowess was a determining factor in bringing the film to a righteous and happy conclusion, has been cast as David Hinges.

The villain of the Kenneth Perkins book is one "China" Jones, and calls for a heavy of the intellectual, well dressed, roughneck type, who gets his nickname because of the Oriental strain in his blood. Stuart Holmes portrays this role in capable manner.

Marguerite de la Motte, one of the popular screen favorites of today, has the leading feminine role. She portrays a dance hall girl and queen of a traveling wagon show in a commendable manner.

"The Narrow Street"

A narrow street, only twenty feet wide, furnishes the basis for Warner Bros., motion picture of the same name, that promises to delight the patrons of the Princess theatre, beginning today.

Being the screen version of the novel by Edwin Bateman Morris, story as interesting and surprising as those crooked little alleys that twist and turn their way across crowded cities.

To outward appearances, Simon Haldene, played by Matt Moore, is as unobtrusive and retiring as the narrow street he lives on, until one stormy night, he finds his bachelor quarters invaded by a nameless girl, who asks for refuge from the inclement weather and the police.

Dorothy Devore, vivacious comedy star, characterizes the intruding girl with all the charm of a beautiful and cultured girl in straightened circumstances, with the result to protect her from those she fears, that Simon Haldene, in his desire announces to the world that she is his wife.

Many embarrassing situations are cleverly evaded by the quick-thinking Doris, whose mysterious presence introduces the staid bachelor to a new vista of things as they might be, if—

Seymour—Frank Hollman will probably have to buy a new stove. He let live coals fall and a hole burned in the floor. The stove dropped through to the basement.

HERE'S RELIEF FOR STOMACH SUFFERERS

DI-JO SWEETENS STOMACH, DIGESTS THE FOOD, AND STOPS INDIGESTION

However disagreeable belching is, the average of us could put up with it if that were all there were to it. But it isn't. Belching is a symptom of a disordered stomach. It is the result of indigestion and it ought to be STOPPED, not because it's impolite, but because it is a warning of nature. This can be corrected by taking Di-Jo. Di-Jo is a simple digestive tablet which sweetens the stomach, helps the stomach to digest the food, enriches the gastric juices of the stomach, and best of all it saves a lot of suffering. Don't suffer with the slightest digestive disorder one single day more. It isn't at all necessary, and it can be quickly relieved. Take Di-Jo and a cup of warm water after your next meal and you'll be surprised at the almost instant relief. If you have a pain in your stomach after a heavy meal, Di-Jo almost unfailingly relieves it. If you need a Laxative, take Di-Vac. It was compounded to use in connection with Di-Jo. Then after you get relief, just give your stomach a little milder treatment in the way of food. Fresh green vegetables, boiled eggs, milk and light food will help you immensely to get your stomach back to normal. For sale by all druggists

VILLAGES ARE WIPED OUT BY PRAIRIE FIRES

Three in South Central South Dakota Destroyed and Three Casualties are Reported

FIRES COVER 100,000 ACRES

Sioux Falls, S. D., March 27—Prairie fires terrorized south central South Dakota today.

Three villages have been destroyed and three casualties are reported.

The villages of Tathill, St. Francis and Vetal were reported to have been wiped out as the flames swept onward.

On the South Dakota-Nebraska line three separate fires have burned over more than 100,000 acres of prairie land.

Fires on the North Dakota line and at the western edge of the state in the Grand river valley were reported today to have been brought under control. There are scores of scattered fires throughout the prairie region.

Driven by a forty mile gale, some of the fires got beyond control and seared everything in their path. Farm buildings were razed and livestock perished as the flames spread. Reports that three persons perished at Tathill were not confirmed early today because of the failure of communications in the fire zone. No other casualties have been reported.

A new fire perilled Fort Yates on the Missouri river in the west end of the state today. The fire was reported to have spread over a wide area. Towns nearby have turned out en masse to fight the flames.

Richmond—With the city primary election near, only twelve candidates have filed their intentions to seek city offices.

Obituary

Elizabeth Adams Nelson, daughter of Jesse and Millie Adams was born February 7, 1884 near Arlington, Rush county Indiana and departed this life March 22, 1925, aged 41 years 1 month and 15 days.

The greater part of her life was spent on the farm near Arlington, living only a few years in Arlington where she resided until her death.

From youth she was instructed in the humble arts and homely virtues which dignify the sex and make for upright conduct.

On September 29, 1861 she became the wife of William H. Nelson, who preceded her in death ten years.

To Mr. and Mrs. Nelson seven children were born, six of whom survive; namely: Adella, Millie, Jesse, John Mertie and Fannie.

Besides the children there are seventeen grand children, thirty great grand children and a host of friends and relatives to mourn our loss.

Although in her 81st year she was well preserved, retaining the possession of her physical powers to a marked degree and gave personal attention to her business affairs until a short time before her death.

Mrs. Nelson was in sympathy with the plain simple teachings of the Christian church having been a faithful member for over fifty years.

There is beauty in death; there is sweetness in death when the sons and daughters stand at the bed side of a mother like this and watch the life ebb out and go to its glorious reward.

Let us rejoice when such a life gives up the battle of earthly strife. Better to know that her tasks are done.

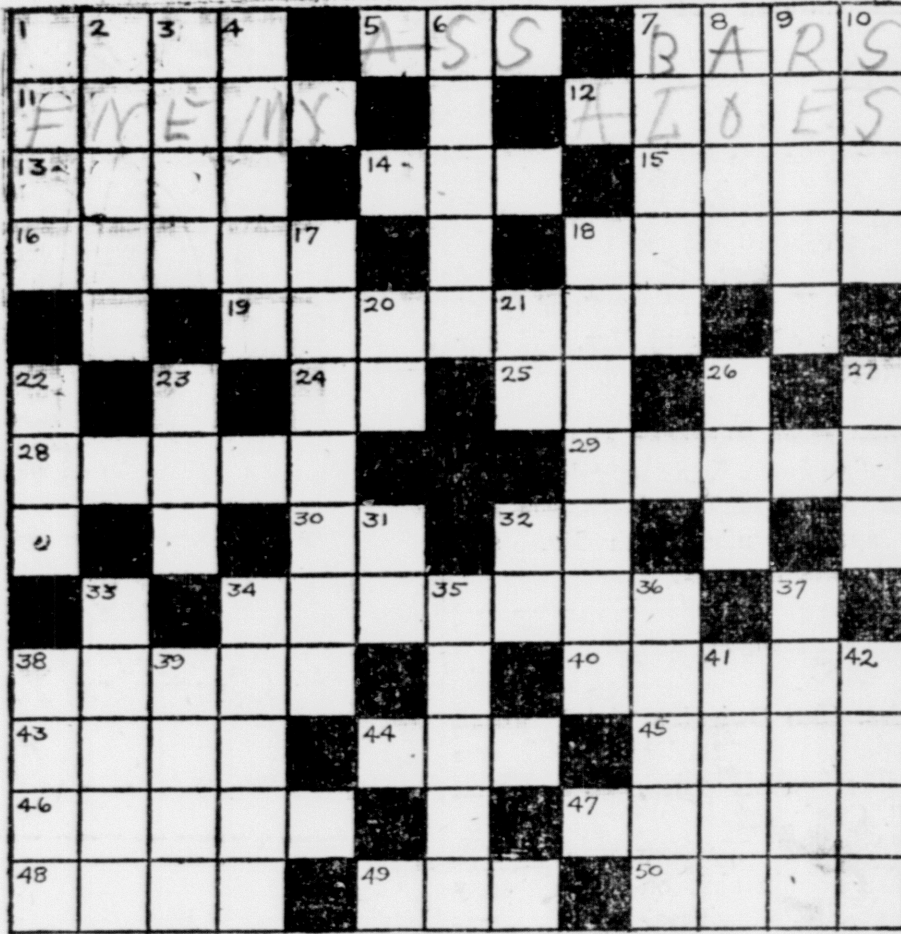

Trials ended and glory won. Tears are vain when a soul so bright wings its way to the Gates of light.

Don't Beat Your Rugs

SEND THEM TO US AND LET US CLEAN THEM THOROUGHLY

Beating removes a little of the dirt and merely stirs the rest up, leaving dirt and germs to be drug back into the house again. We can make your housecleaning a pleasure instead of a drudge.
